The Honorable John Kerry
U.S. Department of State
2201 C Street NW
Washington, DC 20520

Dear Secretary Kerry,

As President of the National Religious Broadcasters (NRB), I write to respectfully request that the United States use its influence on behalf of Christians being persecuted in Egypt.

I am alarmed by reports of targeted violence against Christians in the midst of the ongoing unrest in Egypt. Not only have churches been looted and burned, but Christian individuals, homes, and businesses also have been viciously assaulted. Even Christian schools and an orphanage have been attacked in hate.

NRB is an ardent advocate of religious liberty for all people domestically and abroad. We find this targeting of Christians in Egypt to be intolerable, and we urge that the United States act expeditiously in their defense.

Thank you for consideration and your leadership at the U.S. Department of State.

Sincerely,

Frank Wright, Ph.D.
