The Honorable Harry Reid
522 Hart Senate Office Bldg
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Senator Reid:

As president of the National Religious Broadcasters (NRB), I write to respectfully request your help in ensuring that the U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom (USCIRF) is reauthorized, so that it can continue its invaluable work of highlighting religious liberty worldwide. I understand that the House of Representatives has passed relevant legislation (H. R. 2867); however, action in the Senate is still pending.

NRB is an ardent advocate of religious freedom for all people domestically and abroad. Notably, at our annual convention this year, the NRB Board of Directors re-affirmed its commitment to international religious liberty by approving a resolution calling on the U.S. Government to make its position bolder globally on behalf of this First Amendment freedom we so cherish. To allow USCIRF, which has been a voice for over a decade on behalf of those oppressed for their faith, to expire would be detrimental to American efforts in this area and it may send a very poor message to other nations about U.S. priorities.

Thank you for time and consideration of this request. NRB is grateful for your leadership of the U.S. Senate.

Sincerely,

Frank Wright, Ph.D.
President & CEO
